v.

MATTHEW MERCER-KINSER,

Defendant.

Case No. 19-20772

Hon. TERRENCE G. BERG

STIPULATION CONCERNING EXCLUDABLE DELAY

At the pretrial conference held on September 29, 2022, in person at the courthouse with defendant present, the parties and the Court agreed to adjourn the trial to mid-February 2023. Defense counsel indicated that the defense needs additional time to prepare for trial. Defendant agreed. The parties agreed to enter into the instant stipulation concerning excludable delay. The government has no objection.

The parties further stipulate and agree that based on these reasons, the ends of justice outweigh the best interests of the public and defendant in a speedy trial, and that the time from October 12, 2022 to February 15, 2023 should be excluded from the computation of time under the Speedy Trial Act, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3161(h)(7).

ORDER

Upon this Court's consideration of the parties' stipulation, and of the reasons provided by the parties for the exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act, and the Court being fully advised of its premises;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that trial is set for February 15, 2023.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the time period from October 12, 2022 through February 15, 2023 shall be deemed excludable delay under the provisions of the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C §3161(h)(7). This Court finds that the defense needs additional time to prepare for trial, and that the ends of justice served by this delay outweigh the best interests of the defendant and the public in a speedy trial.
